

THOMAS WILLIAMS CHOPPED HIS WIFE

Struck Her a Blow on the Head
With an Axe.

NORTH GAINESVILLE EPISODE

Quarrel Over the Garden Truck—Colored Man Mad Because Relatives Were Sent Away From the Vegetable Garden.

The serenity of the quiet community of North Gainesville was much disturbed last evening, by one Thomas, better known as Tom Williams, colored, who assaulted his wife with an axe, and then fled from the wrath to come.

Laura Williams is much the better half of Tom and she carries on a truck garden where she brings forth from the earth such as cantaloupes, green corn, etc. Tom has at times been known to manifest sufficient interest in the industry to aid in the propagation of the crops, although he never did enough to impair his respiratory organs.

Laura intended the products to be a slight source of revenue as well as for home consumption, but Tom, like the generous, whole-souled helpmeet that he is, desired to share with his relations and gave the children of his sister free access to the crop.

This did not suit the fancy of his wife, who had done the best part of the work in the garden, and she ordered the children from the place when they came to feast on the results of her toil. The man of the family arose in his might, seized the axe and brought it down on the head of his spouse, cutting an incised wound in her head that required five stitches by Dr. J. Harvey Smith to close up the gaping wound. The skull showed a slight concussion. Although quite a severe blow, the woman will undoubtedly recover.

Marshall Pinkson was notified, but Thomas had cut his lucky, and is probably now doing the Linevitch act in all haste. If he is run down he may have to answer to the charge of assault with intent to kill.

NEWS TERSELY TOLD.

The river coal shipments to the south from Pittsburg during the past two weeks exceeded 15,000,000 bushels, breaking all June records. The final shipment was sent out today.

Ewell Garmen, convicted of murder in the first degree for the killing of William Murray, was found dead in his cell at Mifflintown, Pa., today. He committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid.

Nearly 200 carriage workers at the Barnet Carriage company's plant in Cincinnati struck today on account of reductions in wages. There is a possibility that the strike may extend to other carriage workers.

A Thousand Dollars' Worth of Good.

"I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain," says A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O. "I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure; then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick-dust-like substance and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." Foley's Kidney Cure will cure every form of kidney or bladder disease. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Among these will be several members of the Appalachian club and the American Alpine club including Professor I. C. Russell, of the University of Michigan, and Professor I. C. Tufts of Tufts college Massachusetts. The Sierras club of California, will send a party of one hundred or more among whom will be several prominent Scientists and professors from the University of California.

Sunday School Convention Meets.

Toronto, Ontario, June 27.—The International Sunday School convention resumed its session today. The lessons committee report was the first one to be taken up for consideration and Principia W. A. Falconer, L.L.D., of the Presbyterian Theological college, Halifax, gave an address on a "Teacher's Training."

Calling for More Harvest Hands.

Topeka, June 27.—T. B. Gerow, state employment agent, issued a call for 2,000 more harvest hands. The need is very pressing, as the wheat is ripe and cannot be harvested on account of the lack of help. The employment agency reports that less men than usual have come from other states to help in the Kansas harvest this year.

Mountain Fire in Utah.

Ogden, Utah, June 27.—A mountain fire which is not yet under control is raging north of here with a frontage of over a mile. The fire has already traversed 5 miles of territory, destroying fruit crops and hay stacks. Hundreds of men are endeavoring to keep the fire's path cleared for the safety of the homes in the vicinity.

Folly of Longevity.

The centenarian is a man who has mistaken quantity for quality. The centenarian's life is not always life at all. It is sometimes no more than a bad habit. They live longest who live least.—London Tatler.

Guessed It the First Time.

"Pa," said little Willie, who had been reading a treatise on phrenology, "what is a bump of destructiveness?" "Why—er—a railroad collision, I suppose."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Tax on Babies.

Extreme hot weather is a great tax upon the digestive power of babies. When puny and feeble they should be given a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge, the children's tonic. It will stimulate and facilitate the digestion of their food, so that they soon become strong, healthy and active. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Preservative Feast.

Peat possesses wonderful antiseptic and preservative qualities owing to the presence of tannin, iron and other substances in it. Here is an instance: At the time of the covenanters, in 1685, three men were shot at a place called Crowsgalloway on the moors above Old Cumnock, in Scotland. In 1825, when a monument was being erected to their memory, the workmen came upon the corpses rolled in their plaids. The bodies were in exactly the same state as when they were buried. The moss had preserved them as if they had been embalmed.

A Bad Scare.

Some day you will get a bad scare, when you feel a pain in your bowels, and fear appendicitis. Safety lies in Dr. King's New Life Pills, a sure cure, for all bowel and stomach diseases, such as headache, biliousness, constipation, etc. Guaranteed at all druggists; only 25c. Try them.

The Snow Line.

Snow, even in the tropics, never melts, but remains continuously all the year round above the height of 16,000 feet. In colder climates the snow line is much lower than this.

There will be mistakes in divinity while man preaches and error in government while men govern.—Carleton.

If the Baby is Cutting Teeth

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Matchmaking in France.

A recent writer says of the commercial side of matchmaking in France: "In most French marriages money plays the important part. The first question asked by the young man is, 'How much?' As a rule, it is an easy matter to ascertain without applying directly to the papa, but even when no question of dowry is raised at the formal demand there is always a contract drawn up by a notary, which specifies the exact sum the girl receives."

A Man of Credit.

A distinguished Irish lawyer, always in impoverished circumstances, once took Chief Justice Whiteside to see his magnificently furnished new house in Dublin.

"Don't you think," he said, with a complacent look about, "that I deserve great credit for this?"

"Yes," the judge answered dryly, "and you appear to have got it."

A Serious Moment.

"Yes," said the married man meditatively, "when you see a woman hanging out a line of clothes and the line slips and lets the blessed lot down in the mud, that, my boy, is the psychological moment in which to leave that woman alone."

No Secret About It.

It is no secret that for cuts, burns, ulcers, fever sores, sore eyes, boils, etc., nothing is so effective as Bucklen's Arnica Salve. "It didn't take long to cure a bad sore I had, and it is all O. K. for sore eyes," writes D. L. Gregory of Hope, Tex. 25c at all drug stores.

John Doe X His Mark

A man's mark is his honor. It stands for him and he stands for it. It's the old Saxon way of signifying good intentions.

The right to be protected in the exclusive use of a trade mark has been long recognized by the common law and enforced by the chancery courts of England and this country.

The Government puts its mark on a bond to give it value.

The National Biscuit Company puts its trade mark in red and white on each end of a package of biscuit, crackers and wafers to distinguish these products and to guarantee the quality, and it does.

To more clearly comprehend the real value of this trade mark, try packages of BUTTER THIN BISCUIT and LEMON SNAPS.
